Significant Criminal Events:

Robbery Armed: # 2011-669

On January 21, 2011 at approximately 11:10 pm, the Pittsfield Township Police responded to a report of an armed robbery of a Jimmy John's delivery person. The delivery person/victim went to an address in the 2100 block of Arbor Circle West, which appeared unoccupied. While at this location, the victim was approached by one black male with a handgun. The victim was then struck with the handgun and robbed. The suspect ran to a vehicle where a second male subject was waiting. Both suspects fled the area in a white vehicle, unknown make or model, traveling toward Clark Road.

The victim sustained minor injury and medical treatment was sought. The case remains under investigation and anyone having information is requested to call the Pittsfield Township Department of Public Safety.
