Significant Criminal Events:

On Friday, July 1, 2011, at approximately 10:30 pm, the Pittsfield Township Police Department received a call from an alarm company reporting a front door alarm at a business in the 700 block of Fairfield Ct. An officer was dispatched and upon arrival observed a flat screen television on the floor near the front door. Additional officers responded to the scene and the business was searched. Entry was gained by the suspect prying open the front door. A further check of the property also located a utility trailer in the parking lot that had been entered. At the time of the report it does not appear as though anything was stolen.

Anyone having information relative to the incident is asked to call the Pittsfield Township Department of Public Safety at 734-822-4911.
