WEEKLY CRIME SUMMARY

Total Calls for Service for the week: 264
Total Calls for Service year to date: 8,798

Significant Criminal Events:

Breaking and Entering: # 2011-8720

On Thursday, August 25, 2011 the Pittsfield Township Police Department received a call from a resident in the 3600 block of Helen Ave. reporting a home invasion. Contact was made with the home owner who advised that sometime during the night the suspect cut the screen to an open window in the rear of the house and entered. Once inside the suspect stole a purse containing cash, a cell phone and credit cards. Detectives located a garbage bag full of DVD's in the backyard that was reported stolen from another residence down the street. At this time a suspect has not been identified. If residents see anyone suspicious in the area they are asked to call 911 immediately and report the incident.
