COMMUNITY EVENTS – INFORMATION

Regional Neighborhood Watch Meetings:

Residents will have the opportunity to meet with Public Safety Director Matt Harshberger along with police and fire staff regarding discussions on crime and fire trends in residential areas. Residents will also receive tips on how to prevent crimes of opportunity. An overview of Pittsfield's police and fire "Lock Down / Fire Drills" for our local schools will be provided for parents. Information will also be provided on how Crime Mapping and Nixle's text and email alerts have enhanced the Neighborhood Watch program's effectiveness.

October 16th 2012: 6:30-7:30pm, Roberto Clemente High School at 4377 Textile Road.

October 23rd 2012: 6:30-7:30pm, Harvest Elementary School at 1155 Campus Parkway Drive.

Please pass this information on to your neighbors.

I-Phone / I-Pad Safety Tips: Residents who own Apple products such as iPhones, I Pads and other devices should password protect your devices. You have access under the "I Cloud" menu to set your passwords and to activate "Find my iPhone" which allows you to locate the phone and remotely lock or erase the device. Click on the image below for details on the procedure.

Home Security Tip – Patio Doors:

Pittsfield Township police have responded to three incidents of Home Invasions through patio doors over the past thirty-days. Residents are encouraged to lock your patio doors, use a “Charlie bar” in the base of the door, and auxiliary locks to prevent the doors from being lifted from the frame. For more tips on securing patio doors click the image below.
