Grand Opening!!! 4th Season of the Pittsfield Township Farmers Market: June 2nd

Pittsfield Township (May 26, 2016) -- The Pittsfield Township Farmers Market will open for the fourth season on Thursday, June 2nd and is scheduled to run from June 2 – September 29. Market days are Thursdays from 3:00 – 7:00 PM @ Platt & Michigan Ave.

Highlights for the 2016 season include:

- Ann Arbor chalk artist, David Zinn
- Cooking Demos with Chef Kristi
- Leslie Science Center
- Market Kids can make a craft and play I SPY a frog
- A Master Gardener will answer your lawn and garden questions
- The Saline Fiddlers & live local music weekly

“We are excited to introduce our first year-round season of the Farmers Market,” noted Supervisor Mandy Grewal. “There will be a wide variety of fresh produce, baked goods, artisan products and more. The Market has become an integral part of the fabric of our community and a great way to bring our community together as folks shop for local produce, enjoy live entertainment, and participate in kid’s activities.”

Food Assistance will be accepted at the Pittsfield Township Farmers Market. Bridge Card users can purchase tokens at the Market information tent and have the opportunity to double food dollars through the Double Up Food Bucks Program. New this year, the Pittsfield Township Farmers Market will be participating in the Prescription for Health Program. Visit the Market Information tent for details!
