Michigan Attorney General Warning: Flood Damaged Cars From Super Storm Sandy

Attorney General Bill Schuette has issued a consumer alert regarding the purchase of used vehicles. In the wake of Super Storm Sandy the Attorney General has advised Michigan residents to exercise caution. Amidst an influx of flood damaged vehicles on the national auto market consumers need to be cautious and watch for scams. Don't become a victim of buying a flood damaged vehicle. Federal Trade Commission (FTC): Tax-Related Identity Theft

The IRS uses your Social Security Number (SSN) to make sure your filing is accurate, complete, and that you receive any money due to you. Identity theft can affect how your tax return is processed. An unexpected notice or letter from the IRS could alert you that someone else is using your SSN. The IRS does not contact taxpayers by sending emails, text messages, or using social media to ask for personal or financial information. If you get an email that claims to be from the IRS, do not reply or click on any links. Instead forward it to phishing@irs.gov.
