Home Invasion: 2012-5003

On May 7, 2012 at approximately 9:00 pm, the Pittsfield Township Police Department received a call from a resident in the 4500 block of Swiss Stone Lane East reporting his apartment had been broken into. The victim advised that two handguns, a ring, along with an undisclosed amount of money was stolen. Officers were able to locate a witness in the area who stated he observed a black male removing the screen from the window earlier in the day but assumed the subject lived there and had locked themselves out.

The suspect was described as a black male, 25-30 years old, 5'-7", slim build with facial hair. He was seen wearing green and gray pants / shirt while also carrying a black backpack.
