FTC: Tax Related Identity Theft

The IRS uses your Social Security Number (SSN) to make sure your filing is accurate and complete, and that you get any refund you are due. Identity theft can affect how your tax return is processed. An unexpected notice or letter from the IRS could alert you that someone else is using your S.S.N.; however, the IRS doesn't start contact with a taxpayer by sending an email, text or social media message that asks for personal or financial information.

If you get an email that claims to be from the IRS, do not reply or click on any links, forward it to phishing@irs.gov. For more details on what to do if you are a victim click on the image below.
