Pop-Up Farmers Market @ Passport-2-Pittsfield: April 26th

Pittsfield Township (April 14, 2015) – As Pittsfield Township gets ready to commence its third season of the Farmers Market, stop by and get a preview of our vendors, meet farmers, pet baby sheep and much more at the Pop-Up Farmers Market.

The Pop-Up Market will be part of the festivities for this year's Passport-2-Pittsfield (P2P) event being held on Sunday, April 26th from 1:00PM to 4:00 PM.

The Farmers Market season is scheduled for June 4 – October 1, Market days are Thursdays from 3:00 PM until 7:00 PM.

“We can’t wait to get our third season of the Farmers Market underway,” noted Supervisor Mandy Grewal. “In keeping with our vision to promote a sense of community, and increase healthy and wholesome food access, the P2P event provides the perfect setting to introduce what will be new and improved at the Market this season,” she added.

Visitors of the Pop-Up Market will be able to shop for local goods as well as participate in the following:

- Meet local farmers
- Learn about the items that will be available this season
- Pick up a Farmers Market magnet reminder
- Pet a sheep
- Plant a seed to grow your own lettuce to bring home
- Learn about the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) program and what it means for our community
- Grab a burger, garlic fries, onion rings or fried pickles from the Rolling Stoves food truck
