Sonic Lunch Celebration @ Pittsfield Farmers Market - This Thursday, July 16th

Pittsfield Township (July 10, 2015) – Join the Pittsfield Township Farmers Market and Bank of Ann Arbor for a special Market on Thursday, July 16th from 3:00pm until 7:00pm at the corner of Platt Road and Michigan Avenue (6201 W. Michigan Avenue).

"Bank of Ann Arbor loves to help our area Farmers Markets and is especially pleased to support the Pittsfield Township Farmers Market on Thursday, July 16th. Since we are not hosting Sonic Lunch that day, due to the anticipated large crowd at the Ann Arbor Art Fairs, we will be part of the local flavor by bringing area music, bank give-aways and our classic VW bus to the market" said Tim Marshall, President and CEO of Bank of Ann Arbor. "We are excited to bring market-goers music from Michigan native folk singer-songwriter, Chris DuPont."

Events for the day include: tumbling with Gym America, hands-on birds of prey with the Leslie Science Center, cooking demos with Chef Kristi, Shimmy Shack food truck, and live music featuring musical artist Chris DuPont. As with all Market days, this event is free to all who attend.

"We hope that the regulars of the Sonic Lunch will extend their support of their favorite artists, to the Pittsfield Township Farmers Market, while adding to the energy that makes for an amazing experience to be had by all," explained Kristi Zebrowski of Grace Savory & Sweet, a Pittsfield Market vendor. "Public celebrations that draw communities together in support of local artists and local producers really are the driving force behind the success of markets and everyone involved."

Market days at the Pittsfield Township Farmers Market are Thursdays; from 3:00-7:00pm, and run through to October 1st. For activity updates, go to our website at Pittsfield-mi.gov/farmersmarket as well as our Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/pittsfieldtwpfarmersmarket>.
