2016 National Safety Council: Back to School Safety Tips

Use Extra Caution when School is in Session

As summer draws to a close, back-to-school season is in full effect. Remember to safely share the roads with school buses, pedestrians and bicyclists, and provide children with the necessary knowledge to stay safe at school. Whether children walk, ride their bicycle or take the bus to school, it is extremely important that they - and the motorists around them - take proper safety precautions.

Send Kids Off to School Safely

Injuries are common at school, but many can be prevented. Before you send your children off, be sure to run through these safety topics: Backpack safety-Playground safety-Concussion risk from sports-Tips for a safe bus ride-Head up, phone down.

Protect New Teen Drivers

Teen crashes spike in September as they head back to school and happen more often during hours when school begins and lets out. Learn the best ways to keep your teen drivers safe.
